Details

History

The Theodore Fink Education Endowment was set up by Mrs Hilda Elliott and Mr H. Roland Fink in 1956 as a memorial to their father, Theodore Fink, who was the Chairman of the Royal Commission on Technical Education in Victoria between 1899-1901 and of the Royal Commission on the University of Melbourne between 1902-4.

Use of funds

The University Trust Record stipulates that:

- Trust funds can be used to assist with costs in organising a seminar on historical and/ or comparative study of Australian education for the purpose of advancing education in Australia
- The seminar must be held in Melbourne
- The seminar must be titled The Theodore Fink Memorial Seminar in Australian Education. This must be included in any advertising or promotional materials and should precede any other title used
- Invitations must originate from the Faculty, ideally from the Dean or his nominated representative, even if there are other sponsors / partners.

Expenses that can be covered

In 2024, 2 awards each up to $8,000 available to fund two seminars. This can be used to fund:

- Speaker fees, travel & accommodation
- Venue hire
- Event and Tech support
- Seminar advertising
- Catering costs

Other

It is expected that this memorial lecture will take place in the latter half of 2024 or early 2025. Expenditure will need to follow normal financial procedures. There is a separate account established for the Trust.
